SMC BMC Design Award 2026 –

Finalists announced, Ceremony at JEC World in Paris

Earlier this month the Jury of the SMC BMC Design Award 2026 selected the finalists out of all submitted projects. The winners will come to the Award Ceremony at JEC World 2026 in Paris on March 11 to present their designs and receive a nice price.

The SMC BMC Design Award 2026 is already the 5th edition of the European design competition that recognizes and promotes design excellence in SMC and BMC. This year's theme is "Live Better, Live Green" - SMC solutions for improving Quality of Life.

SMC and BMC are composite materials ideal for making light, and intricate parts that combine structural performance with a smooth surface finish. For that reason, SMC and BMC are increasingly used in a broad range of end-use applications and markets.

Experienced Jury

The Jury for this year's edition consisted of Joan Montobbio (Chairman, SMC BMC Alliance, Menzolit), Éric Pierrejean (JEC), Joachim Froment (Futurewave), and Andrea Rati (Politecnico di Milano). Overall, the Jury was very happy with the quality of the submitted projects and is looking forward to meeting the finalists at the Award ceremony in Paris.
